

Welcome to the 16th edition of Speedway Australia's Speed eNews, your weekly update on the sport, tips and points to remember. Over the previous 15 weeks we have covered a wide range of topics and have received some positive feedback from several you.

It is our intention to continue this weekly form of communication and we look forward to providing you this support in the weeks to come. Just a quick reminder that if any of the information in here needs to find it's way to social media, we will do so via our Speedway Australia channels only.

Feel free to get in touch if you have any questions or require a copy of one of the previous editions.

NOW HIRING: YOUTH DEVELOPMENT OFFICER SOUGHT

Speedway Australia is embarking on a transformation to secure the future of the sport via the nurturing of all forms of junior speedway. By increasing the skill base of new and existing youth competitors, the entire sport will reap long-term benefits.

We are recruiting for the exciting new role of Youth Development Officer to contribute their skills to ensure a variety of key functions are managed efficiently and effectively. These include:-

- Develop national age-appropriate training schemes for all forms of junior speedway
- Create a high-quality learning environment and culture that competitors and trainers thrive in, and strive to be part of.
- Co-ordinate junior training in all states and territories.
- Train any other additional trainers that are required to successfully deliver youth programmes.
- Work in consultation with the divisional bodies representing junior speedway, to ensure their needs are met.
- Act as an advocate for youth speedway within the sport.
- Develop pathways to ensure increasing numbers of youth competitors transition to adult racing.
- Work with the Track & Safety Development Officer to ensure junior speedway is conducted in the safest possible manner (venues, safety equipment etc). This may involve assisting with track inspections from time to time.
- Attend selected Blue Ribbon junior events as a Speedway Australia representative.
- Encourage and mentor the development of Junior Officials.
- Work with external partners who can assist with funding and/or delivering youth speedway.
- Plan, co-ordinate and conduct the annual Rising Star Programs.
- Attend the National Forum and annual Awards.

- Other duties in consultation with the General Manager.

Location can either be in Adelaide or our new Sydney office and remuneration is open to discussion, as we are trying to seek the best person for this exciting new position.

If you think you have the skills, passion and experience to make a difference in a broad and interesting role, please get in touch with Speedway Australia's General Manager Tim Savell by Monday 23 July. A full copy of the job description is available on request, and it's preferable that resumes and letters of application are sent in Word format, with a 5mb size limit.
